John McCollam To Be Inducted Posthumously into Tulane Law School's Hall of Fame

New Orleans, LA - John McCollam, who dedicated almost his entire career to the practice of oil and gas law, has been selected for 2014 induction posthumously into Tulane Law School's Hall of Fame. Nominees are selected by an alumni committee, in consultation with the dean, based on their distinguished professional achievements and their enduring dedication to the mission and students of Tulane Law School. A luncheon honoring him and six other Tulane law school graduates will take place in New Orleans on Friday, April 25.
