Philip T. DeBaillon Joins Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett

Lafayette, LA - Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett is pleased to announce that Philip T. DeBaillon has joined the firm.

Mr. DeBaillon, a fifth generation attorney, is an associate in our Lafayette office where he focuses his practice on representing trustees as well as creditors, such as banks and financial institutions, and debtors in bankruptcy matters in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Louisiana, Lafayette Division. Mr. DeBaillon also practices in the area of successions and has represented creditors and lien claimants in numerous parishes across the State of Louisiana. He has also represented creditors in the United States Bankruptcy Courts for the Middle and Eastern Districts of Louisiana.

Before joining the firm, he served as a Trustee in a Chapter 11 case before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Louisiana, Lafayette Division. During law school, Mr. DeBaillon interned for Judge Ed Broussard of the 15th Judicial District Court in the State of Louisiana. He is admitted to practice before all state, federal and bankruptcy courts in the State of Louisiana and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

Mr. DeBaillon served as an instructor on "Landlord-Tenant Law: Americans with Disabilities Act Compliance" for the Sterling Education Services Seminar held in July 2016. He has been nominated as a Best Lawyer/Attorney by the Times of Acadiana. He received his J.D. from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law in 2013 and his B.S. in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette in 2010.
