Phil Antis Recognized as a Leader in Law by New Orleans CityBusiness

New Orleans, LA - Gordon Arata McCollam Duplantis & Eagan, LLC is pleased to announce that Firm Member Phil Antis has been recognized as a member of the "Leadership in Law Class of 2014" by New Orleans CityBusiness.

Focusing his practice on commercial litigation, Phil has experience in a variety of complex litigation matters including complex class actions, business and contract disputes, regulatory actions, products liability, fraud, misrepresentation and other business torts.

Phil serves as the Firm's Pro Bono Coordinator and in that capacity he works with the New Orleans Pro Bono Project in assigning Gordon Arata volunteer attorneys to provide pro bono legal services to low-income and elderly clients. He has personally represented several pro bono clients in litigation and family law matters. He is also deeply involved in his church's community outreach activities, which has included helping to host thousands of volunteers from around the country who assisted in the rebuilding of homes in New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina.

Phil, along with other honorees, was recognized at a cocktail reception on March 24 at the New Orleans Museum of Art. A profile of his business accomplishments, community activities, and achievements will be published in a special insert this week in New Orleans CityBusiness.
