*Benchmark Litigation: Top 250 Women in Litigation

New Orleans, LA – Gordon, Arata, McCollam, Duplantis & Eagan, LLC is pleased to announce that Firm Member, Donna Phillips Currault, has once again been selected for inclusion in the 4th edition of the Benchmark Litigation: Top 250 Women in Litigation publication. The publication will highlight the achievements of some of the best litigators in the nation.

Donna's practice centers on complex litigation including class action defense in state and federal courts. A significant portion of her practice is also devoted to handling cases and advising clients on employment matters such as employment agreements with non-competition and non-solicitation provisions, federal and state anti-discrimination statutes, employment policies and procedures and employee handbooks.

Before joining the firm, Donna served as a judicial clerk to the Honorable Morey L. Sear, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of Louisiana. She graduated magna cum laude from Tulane University Law School where she served as a Managing Editor of the Tulane Law Review and Senior Fellow for the Legal Research and Writing program and was inducted into the Order of the Coif. Donna was awarded the Michelle Pitard Wynne Professionalism Award by the Young Lawyers Section of the Louisiana State Bar Association, and has published a variety of works and presentations on non-compete agreements, state law wage and hour issues, and attorney-client privileges.
